Dear Larissa,

As I reflect upon the lives made better because of your generosity this year, my spirit fills with gratitude.

I'm thankful for you, Larissa—and so are families around the world whom you have blessed with renewed hope. Meet some of them in this video:

This Thanksgiving season is particularly special. It marks 75 years since Catholic Relief Services was born from the compassion, generosity and faith of people like you.

In 1943, we completed our first project—resettling World War II refugee families from Poland to Mexico. Today, with your help, we work to prevent disease, fight hunger in remote parts of the world and provide relief to the poor and vulnerable when disasters strike—like the very recent volcano in Guatemala or tsunami in Indonesia.

Watch the video and meet people whose lives you have touched—including Julek Plowy, who was just a young boy when he and 1,500 Polish refugees were rescued by CRS 75 years ago. As you watch it, please know that your support has made a real difference in the world.

Though your suffering brothers and sisters may never have the chance to thank you in person, they're grateful for your care and compassion, and I am too.

Happy Thanksgiving to you and yours!

Peace and light,

Sean L. Callahan
President & CEO
Catholic Relief Services

P.S. Thank you again for your gifts this year!
